The interior of this house is even more beautiful than its exterior, every apartment being in its way a gem of magnificence and refinement.

The library especially realizes the most perfect ideal of an elegant and cultured home.

And yet, at the moment we look in upon him—one August afternoon, as he occupied his library—the proprisor of all this wealth appeared of all men the most miserable.

He was Mr. Morton Preble, for the benefit of revenue of the banker.
